CLUB NEWS

The February meeting of Rewey Lucky Stars was held on Sunday the 14th at 6:00pm at the Rewey Fire Station. We did a group activity with a partner which was a memory game of trying to recall objects that you saw only for 10 seconds. We then discussed the project learning day which was held on February 13 and those who attended and their experiences. County Line 4-H is sponsoring their 6th Annual 4-H Food Fight in which Rewey Lucky Stars is participating in. We also discussed issues related to the Iowa County Fair. Steer, Lamb and Swine ID dates and times and educational program requirements. Demonstrations were given by Morgan Washburn. Pictured are Kaylin Collins, Cade Kuhls and Tracy Fillback.

The Cobb Busy Badgers 4-H club met on Sunday, February 21, 2016. Our monthly club activity was making cards for veterans. Club families donated food for the upcoming food pantry drive. Talks and demonstrations included: Zach talked about the importance of eating carbohydrates and Ali showed us how to use a sewing machine. We discussed plans for the Glen Gard memorial that we continue to work on for the Cobb library. County upcoming events are as follows: shooting sports begins April 17th, MAQA is June 23rd and steer ID is March 9th at the county fairgrounds. Our next meeting will be March 13th.

The Rockwell Mills February meeting began with the pledge of Allegiance, Conservation & 4-H Pledges. The ice breaker, by the Tiber family, was a fun 8 question/task activity. We welcomed a new clover bud member, Natalie Wilson. Treasurer's report was read and approved. Mike Brokish had the Hoards Dairyman Judging contest sheets available for all club members and parents to take in part in. 2016 booklets/materials were distributed to all club members. Colton James shared about the recorder instrument he plays and shared a song he recently learned. Brooke Bowser shared a pastel art drawing of a person she did at school. Cassidy Komplin shared a scrapbook she had made about her many fishing experiences. Notes submitted by Colton James, club reporter.

The meeting of the Jonesdale Jays 4-H club was called to order on January 31 by the President Eric Heisner. Flag holders were Luke and Ryan Schubert. In old business: new officers were elected at our November meeting, President: Eric Heisner, Vice President: Malorie Johnson, Secretary: Morgan Vondra, Treasurer: Kylie Sullivan, and Reporters: Maggie Schubert and Sara Heisner. We played Bingo as our group activity. Next meeting Feb 13. Motion to Adjourn by Lucas Sullivan and 2nd by Nicole Johnson. Submitted by Sara Heisner & Maggie Schubert.

At the January County Line 4-H Club meeting we did some crafts and we had a meal. We also had other announcements about upcoming events. The cloverbuds shared their project they did. Then we heard a demonstration about how to make a duct tape bag. After the first demo the Steffes' did a demo. Our craft was cut out snowflakes. After everything it was time to adjourn the meeting. Joey moved to adjourn the meeting, Jimmy second it. Submitted by Estella James.

The March meeting of the Rockwell Mills 4-H Club was called to order at 7:37pm on Saturday, March 5. The Ice Breaker was led by the Lance, Grant, Colton, and Chad James family; it was questions on paper airplanes and you had to throw them for 10 seconds and you had to pick up one and it had a number on the front so you had to go find the other person who had the same number as you and ask them the questions. At CrestRidge some members of the club made bunnies and Easter cards with the residents. On Project Learning Day Jade Smart volunteered to teach one of the programs and members that attended shared what they did. Clover Buds made windsocks and shared them with the rest of the club members. For talks and demonstrations Faith Smart made a wolf drawing using crayon and Nolan James rebuilt a computer using parts from two old ones. Next meeting will be Saturday, April 2nd, 2016 at 7:30pm at the Iowa County HHS Building. Submitted by club reporter Colton James.

On Sunday, March 13th the Cobb Busy Badgers 4-H club met at the Cobb Community Center. We had guest speakers, the Schoville family who brought their guide dog in training and explained how they train dogs for blind people through the Occupaws program. For this month's talks and demonstrations, Emma showed us how to make a sponge bomb, Logan talked about how to do a safety inspection on your bike and Elliot talked about Payton Manning. Our next meeting will be held at the Cobb Community Center on April 10th. Reporter, Tatum J. Kite

The Pleasant View 4-H Club met on Sunday, March 13th at 6:30 PM at the Hope Lutheran Church. During this meeting we installed the remaining officers who were not here during the last meeting. We voted on and approved the club by-laws. The main change to the by-laws was that we decided that in order for the club to run a normal business meeting, we must have a quorum of a 1/3 majority. We have also decided on a location to landscape at the fairgrounds. A committee will be formed to come up with several ideas on what to plant and they will present their ideas to the club at a later date. We did a drawing on who will receive the two pigs donated by Jack Blotz. Nick Portzen and Keigan Yeager both won, so congratulations to them. To close out the meeting, the club frosted cookies for the Fire Department, the Police Department, and the Care Center.

BRING IT BACK REPORTS

This past November I had the opportunity to attend the National 4-H Congress in Atlanta with my fellow Iowa County 4-Hers-- Lyrica Daentl, Alex Harman, and chaperone Melissa Doyle-- along with about 60 other Wisconsin delegates.

We departed for Atlanta the Friday after Thanksgiving, this fast paced five day trip was full of new experiences as well as numerous opportunities for me to grow as an individual and as a youth leader. We were able to network with 4-Hers from across the Nation, 900 delegates in total, who all shared the common love and interest for the 4-H program.

We attended numerous workshops and seminars that all focused on different aspects of leadership. I attended a seminar on consensus group leading and was able to obtain many skills I plan to bring back to Iowa County 4-H. I was also able to tour CNN news center as well as other famous Atlanta attractions. The final day of the congress each delegate was assigned to a different location in the Atlanta area to visit and volunteer. I loved volunteering my time and practicing service, which is something each 4-Her was very familiar with.

I am eternally grateful for the various opportunities 4-H has provided me with throughout the years and urge every young 4-Her to apply for this as well as the other fantastic trips offered to us by 4-H.
