

PHOTO MEETING IDEAS

Applying Science and Technology

- Creating a pinhole camera
- Comparing effects of various lenses
- Comparing effects of various filters
- Enhancing a photo with a computer
- Storing photos on a CD-ROM

Developing Self

- Creating a collage of magazine photos
- Creating a portfolio of my best photos
- Entering photos in a county fair
- Entering photos in a show
- Keeping a photo journal
- Keeping an expense record

Expressing Oneself Creatively

- Creating a photo statuette
- Cropping a photo
- Painting with light*
- Photographing your friends
- Taking a still life/making portable studio
- Taking action pictures/panning
- Taking black-and-white photos
- Taking close-ups*
- Taking digital photos
- Taking double exposures*
- Taking group photos
- Taking night photos*
- Taking panoramas*
- Taking portraits
- Taking silhouettes
- Taking trick photos
- Visualizing a photo/using a viewfinder

Learning to Learn

- Interviewing a photo professional
- Reading a camera manual
- Visiting a camera store
- Visiting a one-hour photo lab
- Visiting a photo website
- Visiting a portrait studio

Communicating with Others

- Giving a photo demonstration
- Making a photo display
- Making a photo story

Making Decisions

- Buying a camera
- Choosing the best lighting
- Composing a picture
- Judging photos
- Selecting the right film
- Serving as youth leader for photo group

Planning and Organizing

- Developing a photo word game
- Organizing a photo bingo night
- Organizing a photo quiz bowl
- Organizing a photo scavenger hunt

Solving Problems

- Caring for a camera
- Caring for film
- Caring for negatives
- Caring for photos
- Cleaning a lens
- Creating a lens filter*
- Holding a camera steady
- Identifying parts of a camera
- Making a photo cropping tool
- Making a photo transfer
- Making a visualization tool
- Making and using a light reflector
- Matting and framing a photo
- Mounting a photo
- Recognizing common photo errors
- Solving vignetting problems*

Taking Community Action

- Photographing the good things about your town
- Photographing the things about your town that might be changed

* Need adjustable camera for best results