

Maximize FoodShare Dollars

During the COVID-19 pandemic, a federal program gave FoodShare members extra benefits, plus the regular amount. Now, due to recent changes to federal law, the extra amounts are ending. February 2023 is the last month members will get extra benefits. Qualifying families will continue to get their regular FoodShare amounts.

Find More information

Read news & updates.

dhs.wisconsin.gov/foodshare/news.htm

Find food resources

Call 211 or 877-947-2211 to ask questions & find local resources. Additional food resources are listed at dhs.wisconsin.gov/foodshare/resources.htm

Check other state benefit programs for eligibility.

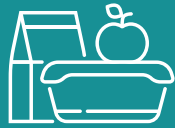

Log in to your ACCESS account at access.wi.gov and click "See if you can get help." Then, answer a few questions to see if there are other state programs to help you. Other options are also listed at <https://dhs.wisconsin.gov/nutrition/index.htm>.

Your county UW-Madison Division of Extension FoodWise program staff are a great resource for stretching FoodShare dollars.

Contact FoodWise Coordinator Maggie Milcarek in Iowa County at 608-930-9850 or maggie.milcarek@wisc.edu

Locate Local Food Resources

Free or reduced price school meals

Contact your school to see if your child qualified for free or reduced price meals at school.

Emergency Food Resources

SWCAP Food Pantry

138 S Iowa St

Dodgeville, WI 53533

608-930-8733

Open to all residents of Iowa County

Tuesday and Thursday 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

For other local pantries, call 211

Community Meal Sites

Mid-day meals are offered Monday through Friday to seniors 60 and over, at local community sites:

Arena: Arena Manor, call 608-341-6859

Avoca: Home Delivery only, call 608-930-9845

Dodgeville: Hidden Valley Community Church, call 608-574-6630

Highland: Home delivery Monday-Friday, call 608-930-9845

Linden: Municipal Building, call 608-623-2800

Mineral Point: Home delivery Monday-Friday, call 608-930-9845

Local Women, Infant & Children (WIC) Office

149 N. Iowa St.

Dodgeville, WI 53533

For eligibility information, call 608-935-2326 extension 204

WIC staff is available by appointment:

Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.